

The North Parish of North Andover Unitarian Universalist

Newcomer Checklist

Let's get to know each other! A guide to exploring North Parish

Your First Visit

- ☐ Attend a Sunday service or several, in person or via Zoom. (The services vary and include different kinds of music!)
- ☐ Complete a visitor card. They are available in the pews or HERE.
- ☐ Introduce yourself to a Greeter, Rev. Lee, or someone in a nearby pew. You can also email Rev. Lee at RevLee@northparish.org
- ☐ If you can, stay for coffee and refreshments after the service. Look for Our Welcome Team members wearing a yellow name tag who can introduce you to people and answer questions.

If You're Visting with Kids or Youth

- ☐ Introduce yourself to our Religious Education ("RE") staff, Susanne or Molly. One of them will likely be by the front door when you first walk in.
- ☐ Fill out an RE visitor card to tell us about your child/ children/ youth (name, age, allergies, etc.)
- ☐ On most Sundays, young people begin in the Sanctuary before going to their RE groups. Children can choose to stay in the sanctuary or go to one of our fun, kid friendly RE activities. If they wish, they can bring a parent with them to their RE group.

Getting Connected

- ☐ Request a North Parish name tag by emailing membership@northparish.org.
- ☐ Subscribe to the weekly eNews HERE.
- ☐ If you have children/youth fill out a registration form for religious education HERE
- ☐ Attend a Getting to Know North Parish group to learn about Unitarian Universalism and North Parish; they meet in the fall and spring.
- ☐ Try a social event, Adult Faith program, drop-in support group, or another small group. You can find information on these programs HERE.
- ☐ Attend the Red Bow Fair, our big holiday event, the first Saturday in December!

Exploring Membership

- ☐ Talk with Rev. Lee, our Membership Coordinator Brittany Moran, or any other staff person about membership. Tell them you're interested in "joining the congregation" ... and feel free to ask questions!
